

I am a subscriber to satellite radio and feel that it is not right to limit what we are allowed to hear on this system. We are paying for a service and it should include choices like weather and radio. Why would this be prohibited? I cannot understand any reason to limit what is available by satellite radio. Freedom of speech for every medium.

Mary Donoghue